Econ 249: Experimental Economics II
Spring 2016 Syllabus
SBSG 1240, Monday & Wednesday, 9:00-10:20am

Instructor: Prof. Michael McBride
Contact: mcbride@uci.edu
Office Hours: Mondays, 10:30-11:45am, SSPA 3129

Purpose: To provide hands-on experience and training in experimental economics; a lab course with emphasis on practical know-how.

Required texts:

Other texts that may interest you if can get a good price:

Your goals:
- Learn about human subjects protection and complete the CITI IRB training.
- Learn how to create a z-Tree program.
- Gain hands-on experience by assisting in a live experiment.
- Implement a fully-ready trial run of your experiment proposed in ECON 249A.
- Polish your proposal and prepare to submit it for outside funding.

Assignments (grade %) (subject to change)
- Assignment 1: Human subjects protection and CITI IRB training (5%).
- Assignment 2: PD Game Z-tree assignment (25%).
- Assignment 3: Methods of Experimental Economics (5%)
- Assignment 4: Your Experiment Z-Tree assignment (30%).
- Assignment 5: Observe Live Experiment, IRB approval required (5%).
- Assignment 6: Final Proposal (30%)